It's the little things that make a getaway great...

Taking a selfie with an alpaca... seeing your child's eyes light up as you approach carnival rides... holding your sweetheart's hand while taking a sunset walk by the lake... that first sip of microbrewed beer. It's the little things worth visiting for—the simple moments that make a big impression for years to come. Butler County, Pennsylvania is filled with unexpected curiosities in every season. One of the best parts is – it's easy to get here! The Pennsylvania Turnpike, I-79, I-80 and Routes 422, 19 and 8 all run through the county. So spend a few nights in one of our scenic campgrounds, quaint B&Bs or comfortable hotels and expect your getaway to be great!
