"Just north of Pittsburgh"

This course was built on rolling terrain and has water hazards coming into play on a few holes. There are numerous trees that can alter your shots and 25 well-positioned sand bunkers incorporated into the design. The signature hole is number 18, a 465-yard, par four, requiring a tee shot up a dogleg right fairway that plays uphill from tee to green.

Golf and so much more...

Did you know these scenic courses are good for more than a rousing round of golf? Many of the courses have great dining facilities on site. Enjoy a tasty meal and a cold drink while absorbing the rolling green backdrop. Even the non-golfers in your life can appreciate that! Cranberry Highlands and Conley Resort are also excellent locations for weddings or other special events.

Some of the county's courses also offer specials when presented with the Val-U-able Treasure Card found inside the Official Visitors Guide, available at www.VisitButlerCounty.com. Special restrictions and limitations do apply, so make sure you read the fine print before claiming your offer.

This 18-hole course features an exciting design that takes advantage of dramatic views and elevation changes. Strawberry Ridge boasts some of the largest greens in western Pennsylvania. The driving range offers both sand and natural tees. A snack bar and pavilion are available with a golf shop and pub. Opening late spring 2013, is a new short-game practice facility featuring sand and a variety of roughs.
