

The 18th annual Kaleidoscope Arts Festival— sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts, Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, and numerous SRU Departments— will run April 11-27! The full lineup of all 30 events can be found at www.sru.edu/kaleidoscope. In addition to fantastic capstone events from the SRU Departments of Dance, Theatre, Music, English, and Art, the 2019 festival also features the following film screenings, guest artists & community events:

- April 11, 4 pm (ATS Auditorium): Pernkopf to present day: Nazi Anatomists and ethical implications of their work by Aaron Fried – lecture sponsored by Bailey Library and the History Department.
- April 16, 6 pm (SSC Theater): Faces Places (rated PG/run-time 90 minutes) – 89-year old French New Wave director, Agnes Varda, and acclaimed 33-year old French photographer & muralist, JR, travel around the villages of France in JR's photo truck meeting locals, learning their stories, and producing epic-size portraits of them.
- April 17, 7:30 pm, $6 (SWC 111): Vladimir Mollov: Bulgarian Accordion Virtuoso – Mollov will perform traditional Bulgarian music as well as his own compositions in the Bulgarian style with bass and guitar; sponsored by the Music Department.
- April 18, 12:30 pm (Vincent 105): Public Art in Urban Spaces: A Criterion for Their Evaluation – Lecture and discussion with Dr. Fred Evans, Philosophy Professor & Coordinator of the Center for Interpretive & Qualitative Research at Duquesne University; sponsored by SRU Philosophy Club and Philosophy Department.
- April 18, 12:30 pm (SWC 111); April 19, 11 am (Alumni House): Michael Nicoll Yahgulanaas – Award-winning contemporary Haida artist, author and speaker will present “Art as Resistance: Haida Sovereignty, History, and Politics” on 4/18 and “Haida Manga and Graphic Novels” on 4/19; sponsored by the Native American Studies Series, the College of Liberal Arts, Kaleidoscope Arts Festival, English and Philosophy Departments.
- April 19, 12-1 pm (Field House Dance Studio); 1-2 pm (Quad): Holi Festival ft. Chitra Subramanian—A Bollywood dancer based in Washington D.C., Subramanian will lead an open master class at Noon, and then at 1 pm Rock Dance will present a performance of one of her pieces in the Quad, followed by an hour of music and throwing color to celebrate spring; co-sponsored by the Dance Department.
- April 22, 7 pm (SSC Ballroom): (un)gender(ing) dance – back by popular demand, we welcome dance artist Donald Shorter to share another facet of GENDEROSITY:PHYSICALISED; additionally, SRU Instructor of Dance, Jesse Factor, will perform his original work, Mommie Queerest and SRU Assistant Professor of Dance, Lindsay Viatori, will screen her short dance film, Meet Norma Tivity; co-sponsored by the Kaleidoscope Arts Festival, Frederick Douglass Institute, PCRED, Gender Studies and Dance Department.
- April 23, 12:30 pm (SSC Theater); 2 pm (Printmaking Studio, Art Building): Justseeds Artists' Cooperative member, Mary Tremonte – a Pittsburgh-based artist, educator & DJ— will discuss Justseeds' mission of creating prints and graphics in support of movements for social and environmental justice, as well as lead a workshop.
- April 23, 2 pm (Swope Recital Hall): The Brass Roots – a collection of Western Pennsylvania's finest brass musicians performing a number of brass quintet standards from baroque to modern.
- April 23, 6 pm (SSC Theater): Third Coast Dance Film Festival – Currently in its ninth year, Third Coast celebrates the intersection of contemporary dance and the moving image with a screening series of short dance films.
- April 24, 6 pm (SSC Theater): Ann Cooper Albright – Join us for a catered reception and discussion with dancer and scholar, Albright, who will discuss her latest book, How to Land: finding ground in an unstable world, recently published by Oxford University Press; sponsored by the Departments of Dance, English, Gender Studies and Philosophy.
- April 25, 7 pm (SSC Theater): Steel City Improv Theater – Members from Pittsburgh's original home for long-form improvisational comedy will perform a 45-minute set, ft. an opening performance from SRU's own Rock'em Sock'em Improv Club, led by advisor, Dr. Melissa Ford.
- April 27, Noon-6 pm (Macoskey Center): Children's Earth Day Celebration& the 29th Annual Macoskey Center EarthFest – this year's community-oriented celebration includes arts and crafts, face painting, a petting zoo, horseback rides, games & activities for kids and sustainability-focused DIY activities for adults!

For more information, contact:

Deanna Brookens

Assistant Professor, Department of Theatre

Director, Kaleidoscope Arts Festival

deanna.brookens@sru.edu